

“No matter what type of event you are planning, having the bag-pipes played will add a special touch that you will not soon forget. The pipes bring with them centuries of tradition along with a unique, haunting sound that you and your guests will love.

With a myriad of tune selections from traditional Scottish and Irish marches, slow airs and jigs to some classic rock, cartoon and movie sound tracks, there will always be something for everyone.

Raised in the land of the pipes and taught by my father, I will always do everything I can to ensure that my performance meets and exceeds all of your requests and expectations.”

Testimonials

"James was a great addition to our wedding. He was friendly, flexible, easy to work with and figured out what to do and what to play without us having to think about it too much. He actually almost stole the show as everyone was intrigued to see him play. Thanks again for your services, we had a great time." Nathaniel & Jamie. May 2007

"It was a pleasure having you play bagpipes at our wedding celebration. Everything went extremely smooth and the music was great. I especially enjoyed my private serenade from the window right before I walked down the aisle. It kept me calm! I highly recommend you to anyone needing bagpipes to personalize a special event." Thanks again, Christine & Travis. July 2007

"James played at our neices high school graduation party in Olmsted Falls and he was the highlight of the day! Clearly he has great talent but as well, is a great guy. He was a pleasure to work with prior to the event day too. Seeing that I was in Connecticut and he in Ohio, communication could have been a problem. Not at all! James was very responsive, in tune with what we were looking for and catered to the crowd! Don't think twice about it - book this guy!" Anne June 2008
